The Department of Management and Human Resources, Fisher College of Business, The Ohio State University, is searching for a distinguished scholar for the Alutto Chair in Leadership. This will be a full-time, tenure-track appointment to begin fall semester 2015. Candidates must have an outstanding record of scholarly accomplishment and have demonstrated leadership ability. The holder of the Alutto Chair will be expected to produce high quality research, to be involved in collaborative research efforts with other faculty, and to provide leadership in research, teaching, and service both within the college and within the field of leadership.

Ph.D. (or equivalent) is required, as is a distinguished publication record that places the candidate among the leaders in the field. Teaching and service records must also be at the highest level. The Fisher College of Business is not currently committed to any particular area of research, theory, or methodological approach and is open to applications from any scholar asking novel and interesting questions pertaining to leadership. Salary and teaching load are highly competitive and commensurate with the candidate’s qualifications. For more information on the Fisher College, visit our webpage at: http://fisher.osu.edu

Applicants should send (1) a cover letter summarizing the applicant’s qualifications, (2) curriculum vitae, (3) publication samples, and (4) three letters of recommendation to Professor Ben Tepper, Management & Human Resources, Fisher College of Business, The Ohio State University, 700 Fisher Hall, 2100 Neil Avenue, Columbus, OH 43210, c/o dugger.4@osu.edu telephone; 614 292-0466.

Applications will be considered until the position is filled.

The Fisher College has identified the diversification of its faculty, staff, and students to be an essential goal. The Ohio State University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. Qualified women, minorities, veterans, disabled veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.
