SOLE - The International Society of Logistics and the Logistics Education Foundation
Announce the 2007 Dissertation Award Competition for Promising Research in System Design for Reliability, Maintainability, and Supportability; Logistics Systems and Maintenance; Business Logistics; and Supply Chain Management

21 February 2007

The 2007 SOLE Dissertation Award provides a $3,000 grant to a Ph.D. candidate and recognition by the Society through publication of an article in the SOLE Logistics Spectrum based on the completed dissertation.

We ask that you encourage qualified Ph.D. candidates in your program (or related programs) to apply. The student provides a one-page application plus a five-page response to two questions. Statements of support from two faculty members are required. These materials can be obtained from Stan Griffis using the email address below. The application materials can also be accessed at:

http://fisher.osu.edu/~cooper\_7/

To be eligible, the individual must be admitted to candidacy for the Ph.D. with a research proposal approved by his or her doctoral committee. The award will be presented at the SOLE 2007 Symposium in Pittsburgh, PA, scheduled from 21-23 August 2007.

Applications and supporting documentation must be received by 23 April 2007.

Materials should be emailed directly to Stan Griffis. If you would prefer to use mail, please contact Prof Griffis at the email address below to obtain mailing details.

If emailed, ensure delivery and attach all materials to the same email and request confirmation of receipt.

Thank you for your support of the Society's recognition of outstanding doctoral candidates. We look forward to your program's active participation.
