Position: Chase Chair for Excellence in Strategy and Professor of Management and Human Resources
Institution: Fisher College of Business, The Ohio State University
Location: Columbus, Ohio

The Department of Management and Human Resources, Fisher College of Business, The Ohio State University, is searching for a distinguished scholar for the Chase Chair for Excellence in Strategy. This is a full-time, tenure track appointment, to begin autumn semester 2018. Candidates must have an outstanding record of scholarly accomplishment and have demonstrated leadership ability. The holder of the Chase Chair will be expected to produce high quality research, be involved in collaborative research efforts with other faculty and PhD students, and provide leadership in research, teaching, and service both within the college and within the field of strategy.

Ph.D. (or equivalent) is required, as is a distinguished publication record that places the candidate among the leaders in the field. Teaching and service records must also be at the highest level. The Fisher College is not currently committed to any particular area of research, theory, or methodological approach and is open to applications from any scholar asking research questions that are at the core of the strategy field. Salary and teaching load are highly competitive and are commensurate with the candidate’s qualifications.

Applicants should send (1) a cover letter summarizing the applicant’s qualifications, (2) curriculum vitae, (3) publication samples, and (4) three letters of recommendation to: Professor Bennett J. Tepper, Management and Human Resources, Fisher College of Business, The Ohio State University, 700 Fisher Hall, 2100 Neil Avenue, Columbus, OH 43210-1144, c/o Dugger.4@osu.edu. Applications will be accepted until September 15, 2017.
