THE BERNARD J. LA LONDE
TRANSPORTATION AND LOGISTICS SCHOLARSHIP

FOR UNDERGRADUATE LOGISTICS MANAGEMENT MAJORS
AT THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
23rd Scholarship Year 2012-2013:  (Fall ‘12, Spring ‘13, Summer ‘13)

The Past Presidents of the Columbus Roundtable of the Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals are offering the Bernard J. La Londe Transportation and Logistics Scholarship for undergraduate students at Ohio State majoring in Logistics Management. The scholarship is for tuition at the in-state rate, academic fees, and required books for one or to two semesters (maximum of $6,000 per semester) not covered by other scholarships. Up to $12,000 can be awarded per recipient per Scholarship Year. The exact budget for 2012-2013 is unknown at this time but is expected to be 2 or 3 semesters.

The application deadline is 5:00 PM Friday May 11, 2012.

Selection is based on academic merit, leadership, and need. There is no fixed formula.

Students from any undergraduate rank, including seniors, can apply. Students must be full time and Logistics Management majors in the semesters for which they receive award payments but need not be full time Logistics Management majors or even registered to apply. Students from any state or country are eligible but the awards are reimbursed at the in-state rate.

Applications can be obtained from Dr. Martha Cooper in Fisher 514 or in Fisher 506. Turn in completed forms to Dr. Martha Cooper in Fisher 514 or in Fisher 500 (Marketing & Logistics Office)

The selection committee consists of three non-faculty members of the Columbus CSCMP Roundtable and two members of the OSU Logistics faculty. The committee chooses recipients for the entire upcoming academic year. Now is the time to apply for next year's scholarship. Winners will be notified on or before May 30, 2012.
