196 DEGREE HOURS NEEDED FOR GRADUATION

HOURS THAT DO NOT APPLY TOWARDS GRADUATION

- Course numbers less than 100 (050, 075-examples) are considered remedial and will not be used towards graduation hours.
- The credit hours for a repeated course will not be counted more than once in meeting graduation requirements.

++The old GEC requirements apply to all undergraduate students admitted to the university and enrolled for any quarter prior to summer quarter 2007, and to transfer students admitted to the university for summer quarter 2007 through spring quarter 2008 who have earned 45 or more hours of transfer credit. The new GEC requirements apply to students beginning their careers as regularly enrolled college students summer quarter 2007 or later (some of these students may have earned more than 45 hours of transfer credit completed while they were enrolled in high school); and to transfer students admitted to the university for summer quarter 2007 or later who have earned fewer than 45 hours of transfer credit.
